INTRODUCTION

From the desk of Shaan Rais... Phenomenal day and welcome!

If you are reading this right now, it means you are considering having me make a guest appearance (either virtually or in-person) on your media platforms...

I would like you to know that I greatly appreciate your consideration and you can rest assured that you have made an excellent choice.

Given my extensive media background (television, radio, on-stage, and virtual), I understand firsthand how tedious it can be to quickly gather information related to media features/appearances. Therefore, I have taken the initiative of clarifying, simplifying, and amplifying the process by putting together everything you would need in one conscious, convenient space.

Within this document, you will find information about me, publications that I have appeared in, a few testimonials from my clients, notable Organizations that I have worked with, past and future speaking engagements, topics that I regularly make guest appearances for, as well as photos that can be used as content for promotion.

This Is Guaranteed to Make Your Job 10x Easier and Also Give You Sense of What It Would Be Like Us to Conduct Business...smooth, for a Simple, and Professional.

If at any time you feel as if you don't have all of the relevant information that you need or there is something else I should have included in this kit, then you can personally reach out to me at shaan@shaanrais.com or you can call 646 259 3051 to speak with my chief of operations so we can make immediate improvements.

It is our intention to serve you to the highest possible degree and I look forward to doing business with you, now and in the future.

Again, thank you for your consideration, and in anticipation of our newly forged business alliance...

Congratulations...

And Let's GROW!!
